In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts are established by a preponderance of the evidence or clear and convincing evidence and require the detention of the above-named defendant pending trial in this case.

Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment, the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and information at the hearing establish by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

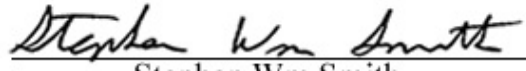

1. Defendant is a 30-year old male United States citizen born in Eagle Pass, Texas. He is a lifelong resident of Brownsville, Texas, but has lived at his current address only 3 months. His parents are resident aliens living in Brownsville and his three siblings are U.S. citizens living in Brownsville. Defendant has been married to a U.S. citizen for eleven years and has two children. He has one uncle living in Mexico, and last traveled there 3 years ago.
2. Defendant is charged with possession with intent to distribute 1,000 kilograms or more of Marijuana a Schedule I controlled substance, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841. He faces a potential penalty of 10 years to life in prison.
3. Defendant has no known criminal history in the United States.
4. Testimony at the hearing indicates that defendant played a large role in the alleged drug trafficking conspiracy involving a large amount of marijuana. The government's evidence includes wiretaps of defendant's conversations regarding illegal drug trafficking activity.
5. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumption that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
